ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby placed on probation for a term of: TWELVE (12) MONTHS.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately.

Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $625.45 to victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the probation office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims. Payments are to be made to the Clerk of the Court.

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. The Court finds from a consideration of the record that the defendant's economic circumstances allow for a full and immediate payment of restitution.

The defendant shall comply with Second Amended General Order No. 20-04.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a total fine of $5,000, which shall bear interest as provided by law. The fine shall be paid in full immediately. Payment is to be made to the Clerk of the Court.

The defendant shall comply with Second Amended General Order No. 20-04.

2. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment, restitution, and fine in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
3. The defendant shall submit her person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers, cell phones,

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

The Court advises defendant of her rights to an appeal. Bond is exonerated upon reporting to the U.S. Probation Office.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
